Campomarino (Këmarini in Arbëreshë) is an Italian municipality of 7,803 inhabitants in the province of Campobasso in Molise. Located along the Adriatic coast, it is one of the four municipalities of Molise of Arbëreshë tradition, partially preserved in the culture and language. The municipal territory, in addition to the main nucleus of Campomarino, includes the other localities of Campomarino Lido, Nuova Cliternia, Ramitelli and Contrada Arcora.

The municipality is a member of the national associations "Città del vino" and "Città dell'olio", by virtue of its agricultural and wine-growing vocation. Campomarino is one of the main tourist locations on the Molise and Adriatic coast and hosts several structures operating in the field of seaside tourism
